GOALS IMPLEMENTATION- ARGENTINA

AG 004

In implementing established goals, the Ambassador and the Country Team will:

-- follow human rights developments closely, reporting on the effect of US sanctions and recommending appropriate modifications in response to changing circumstances;

-- encourage a steady stream of fact-finding missions from the U.S.;

-- enquire concerning individual human rights cases with GOA authorities;

-- maintain close liaison with legitimate Argentine human rights groups and the Church and encourage the support of other diplomatic missions on human rights;

-- use ICA assets extensively in pursuit of our human rights objectives;

-- maintain an extensive dialogue with political party and labor leaders, encouraging them to present to the government constructive proposals for paving the way for representative government;

-- seek to develop a multi-phased understanding with Argentina on nuclear non-proliferation;

-- aggressively pursue the Country Commercial Program and be responsive to Argentine proposals for reactivating a commission to deal with bilateral economic problems.
